I can say with conviction that APE towers over the rest. In short, it's THE BOOK on publishing and I have no doubt that in years to come the book will be referred to as the bible of self-publishing. The book is divided into 29 chapters and spans over 300 pages. As the title suggests, the book is split into 3 sections: Author, Publisher and Entrepreneur. In the early chapters they give a brief overview of how books are published, past and present.
